

CAMPUS NEWS

University of New Mexico

June 17, 1996

Larry Gordon, visiting professor at the School of Public Administration, has been named the 1996 recipient of the New Mexico Society for Public Administration Distinguished Public Administrator Award. Gordon, past president of the American Public Health Association, retired as New Mexico Secretary for Health and Environment in 1988.